

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Volunteerism embodies the true spirit of America and is exemplified by the men and women of our state's Jaycees; and,

WHEREAS, The Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) combats forty neuromuscular diseases that cripple nearly 350 South Dakotans and nearly one million Americans; and,

WHEREAS, The Muscular Dystrophy Association provides a state and national program to provide free medical services and orthopedic aids to muscular dystrophy patients; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Jaycees have pledged their efforts to help find a cure for these devastating diseases by supporting the extensive research of MDA; and,

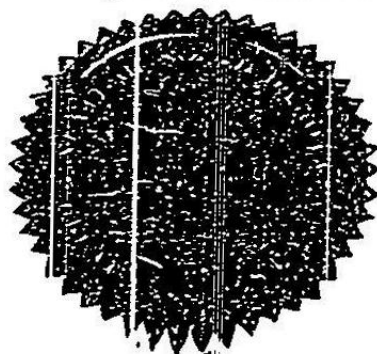

WHEREAS, In pursuit of this goal, the South Dakota Jaycees are conducting fund-raising projects in our state on MDA's behalf, including a statewide "stick 'em up for MDA," dancing, bowling, and roadblocks; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Jaycees have always believed in their dedication to helping others:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim March 31, 1990, as in South Dakota, and call upon the citizens of our state to join with millions of Americans in helping to support efforts to find a cure for muscular dystrophy and related neuromuscular diseases.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
